President Paul Kruger
1825 – 1904

Write about his boyhood.

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

How did he become president of the South African Republic?

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

How did he feel during the gold and diamond discovery years?

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

When, where and how did his life end?

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________